Preview and Betting Tips A tense heavyweight rematch has been scheduled for this afternoon, as the Denver Broncos get their revenge for last year's heartbreaking AFC Championship. Denver's only Super Bowl appearance came in 1970, and the Ravens are determined to build on their first playoff win since then. "We have great players," said Ravens quarterback Joe Flacco. "We have a Hall of Famer quarterback and a Hall of Famer running back. It doesn't really matter who we have; we have a great team." While they say they have a great team, the Ravens are going to have to have a great game to beat the nimble Denver Broncos. Flacco has to do just that, as the Broncos are going to try and exploit his weaknesses. Denver has a much different defensive approach in the rematch. The Ravens tried to neutralize the Broncos' defense by running the ball all game long, but the Broncos are much better at sacking the quarterback. Denver rushed for 184 yards and five touchdowns in last year's meeting, and Flacco took several hard hits during the game. Flacco will have a much easier time of it in this rematch, and he'll be rushing for 78 yards and three touchdowns. That won't be enough to stop the Broncos, who are built to absorb big hits and have a great offensive line. They are led by running backs Montee Ball and Knowshon Moreno, who combined for more than 2,400 rushing yards in 2012. Ball isn't as powerful as Moreno, but he'll be able to get to the second level and catch passes out of the backfield. He has excellent hands and
